

Storm Sweeps Through Texas and Arkansas

Many Killed and Injured;
Much Destruction of Property

(By the Associated Press.)
LITTLE ROCK, April 16.—Fifty known dead and hundreds of persons injured have been reported in dispatches received here from the tornado-swept section of Southwest Arkansas.

Most of the loss of life and the greatest property damage occurred in small communities in Miller and Hempstead counties, where the storm struck late yesterday. While it was considered possible that some of the reports were duplicates, all dispatches indicated that the death list would be increased when wire communication is restored and an accurate check of the toll of the storm can be made.

Direct communication with Texas, Arkansas by wire, from all points north of Hope, in Hempstead county is expected.

DALLAS, Tex., April 16.—At least seven lives were lost in north-east Texas late yesterday in a tornado which, after sweeping sections of Smith, Wood, Gregg, Cass and Bowie counties, passed into Miller and Hempstead counties, Arkansas, where more than a score of persons were reported killed. Scores of persons were reported injured in the affected area of Texas. Six of the Texas fatalities were in Avinger, Cass county and one at Atlanta.

The storm according to meager reports here originated either in Smith or Gregg county, Texas, and property and crop loss was said to be great. The wind passing through Cass county covered a path about half a mile wide and swept a timber section which had not been heard from early today. Houses were damaged or destroyed at Mincola, Avinger, Lindon, O'Farrell, Atlanta and Gladewater.

Among the identified dead at Avinger are Mrs. R. L. Dunbar and a young son of R. L. Jenkins. The other known fatalities there were negroes.

W. B. Henderson, well known farmer, was killed at Atlanta. Unverified accounts had several negroes killed in the O'Farrell community, near Atlanta.

Wire communication with the affected districts had not been fully restored early today. It was feared re-establishment of wire connections would disclose additional fatalities.

TEXARKANA, Tex., April 16.—With eighteen known dead, three score or more persons injured, ten probably fatally, in the terrific storm which girdled Miller county, Arkansas late yesterday and swept to the north and east, reports of casualties early today were regarded as still incomplete.

Telephonic communication with the devastated territory is entirely cut off; in instances the wires forming impassable tangles across the roads, littered with uprooted trunks of tree and wreckage.

Skirting Texarkana by a narrow margin, the full brunt of the storm apparently struck the Tringenta community, three miles northeast of here, which was practically razed by the twister and where the first toll of death in Arkansas was exacted.

Shilo, seven miles northeast of here is a heap of wreckage, the hurricane crossing the Potter, Sims and Boyce plantations where farm buildings and negro tenement houses were sucked from their moorings and deposited in fragments over a wide surrounding territory.

THE BEGINNING OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

The jury sitting in county court in Ada this week is decidedly different from the most juries that sit in Oklahoma.

This jury seems to believe that it was called into court to help enforce the laws of Oklahoma.

This jury has not hesitated to acquit when an acquittal seemed proper. But it has not hesitated to convict when the evidence seemed to warrant a conviction.

This jury has not hesitated to impose sentences sufficiently severe to throw the fear of God into the heart of the wrongdoer. It has returned verdicts that will be remembered by the lawless for years to come.

This jury has the right idea. No matter how many raids a sheriff may make or how many delinquents may be arrested. No matter how earnestly the judge may urge law enforcement or how vehemently the public may insist on law enforcement, if juries refuse to do their duty, laws become jests and law enforcement is an impossibility.

This jury has won the fear and hatred of those who live to violate the laws of the state. But this jury has won the commendation of every law loving, God-fearing citizen of Pontotoc county. This jury has done well.

Ada Selected as the State Headquarters For Light Company

Ada has been selected as the permanent state headquarters for the investment department of the North American Light and Power company, the concern which owns the Oklahoma Light and Power company which serves Ada and a number of like plants in Oklahoma and other states.

This announcement was made today by O. W. Erringer of Chicago, manager of the investment department for the North American. With him in this city is Stuart Grant of Chicago, who will have charge of the department in this state.

Mr. Grant will maintain an office in the Oklahoma Light and Power company's building, on South Broadway. He said to a representative of the News that heretofore the North American has been run on eastern capital, but it is the plan now to place the bulk of the company's stock with residents of the cities which it serves.

MANY KILLED IN ALABAMA STORM

Small Towns Near Birmingham.

(By the Associated Press.)

Accommodations for Visitors Next Week
Wanted by Normal

Those in charge of the East Central District athletic and literary meet which will be held here Friday and Saturday, April 22 and 23, have announced that the people of the city who have homes near the Normal, or within easy reach of the Normal, are asked to open their homes for the students who will come from 11 different counties to enter in the meet.

Every year the people have furnished plenty of rooms for the visitors and as they expect a large attendance this year, more rooms than ever will be needed. With this in view the following prices have been chosen, the committee believing that they are fair and just; the price set for a bed and breakfast will be $1.00 and the price for a bed for two persons without breakfast would be $1.00. Only a bed and breakfast for each person will be asked as the visitors will get their other meals down town.

If any one has a room that they can possibly spare they are urged to request to call Ruth Carter at phone 86. This plan has been enclosed by Mrs. Tom Hope, president of the Ladies Auxiliary and their secretary, Mrs. J. P. McKinley.

UNION HEADS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Will Select Men To Meet
With Railroad Managers
Tomorrow.

(By the Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, April 16.—Union heads of thirteen railroad employee organizations today were summoned to conference tomorrow with B. M. Jewell, of the employment department, American Federation of Labor to outline labor plans and rules for conferences with railroad management all over the country.

No definite announcement has been made on any road, as to when the first conference will be held. Under the railroad labor board rule decision, this week, the carriers and their employees were directed to get together at the earliest possible date.

The fact that a report on the result of the conferences must be made to the board by July 1 meant that negotiations would start immediately, it was said on both sides. "We are now chiefly concerned with competent men to represent the employees on each road," Mr. Jewell said. It was estimated he declared, that five thousand men would be required to carry on the individual conferences with the carriers.

Well Near Ada Tests 1,760 Barrels Per Day

Wetumka Boys Win
Seven Inning Game
From Ada Hi Team

Unable to stop the heavy hitting of the Wetumka team, the Ada boys lost a seven inning baseball game Friday afternoon by a score of 5 to 0. The Wetumka team was heavier and more experienced and by their long hits and plays were able to score 5 times. The Ada boys worked hard to hold their opponents down but were unable to get the proper hits to score.

The game started with a rush when the visitors scored in the first inning. Quickly rallying the locals were able to hold them down until the fifth inning, when two more scores were made by a long hit on the part of a Wetumka boy. During this inning the Ada boys did their poorest playing. Twice more the visitors managed to score in the two following innings and despite the hardest efforts the Ada boys could not score. They managed, however, to get a man to third several times.

SAMUEL GOMPERS MARRIED AGAIN

Secretary of Good Road Motor Club Explains Plans

Requested to outline the plans of the Good Roads Motor club, H. B. Roach, secretary of the organization made the following statement to a representative of the News today:

"Knowing that it will take the concerted action of every one interested to establish good roads in this country and feeling that every one should be willing to do their part, the Good Road Motor club has decided to try and secure the passage of a law which is now in force in other states. This law would place a tax of one cent per gallon on all gasoline sold by dealers and distributors of gasoline. The money raised by this tax will go into a fund which will be used exclusively in the upkeep of the roads.

"There is but one way to keep up the roads as we have them; and that is to have a road scout or road hand on the highway continually, looking after their needs. He should be paid out of the funds of the county and the tax on gasoline will more than pay the expense.

"We find that there are a number of people in Pontotoc county who have no desire to assist in the building or keeping up of any public improvements. They belong to the octopus family, or rather, the blood sucking vampire species. They desire to take in every thing and give out nothing. We are proud of the spirit of co-operation displayed by the gasoline dealers here in Ada.

"We expect to visit every dealer in the county and endeavor to get their co-operation in this phase of the good road problem. We believe that there would be saved to the owner the amount of the tax with every mile traveled and we feel that this is the best way to get at the raising of the necessary funds with which to do the work. It is estimated that this little contribution will raise between $8,000 and $10,000 to supplement the road fund. The money be spent under the supervision of the county commissioners and the Good Road Motor club."

Men Predict 3,000 Barrel
Production When Drilled In.

Running 22 barrels of oil in 18 minutes, the big well owned by the Carter-Nance-Laselle syndicate on the Burk farm, in 32-5-5, last night surprised even the men who have been in closest touch with developments at the well and caused a near panic among members of the oil fraternity, most of whom had estimated the probable production of the same in the neighborhood of 500 barrels per day.

The average maintained by the well for the 18 minutes' period indicates that it would make 1,760 barrels natural in 24 hours and proves that it is one of the very valuable wells of the state.

In view of the fact that the sand has only been touched, oil men are predicting that when the sand is further penetrated and loosened by a shot of nitroglycerine, the well will flow better than 3,000 barrels per day.

This new discovery places Pontotoc county safely on the oil map of the state and is regarded as the forerunner of development on a magnificent scale.

In making the test last night, a hole was dug of dimensions which would contain just 22 barrels. The control head was removed from the casing and kept off until the basin ran full of oil. Just 18 minutes from the time the head was removed, it is said the basin was level full of oil.

In addition to the drillers and members of the Carter-Nance-Laselle syndicate, several disinterested persons from this city are said to have been present when the test was made.

The oil which issued from the pipe is said to have been of the same fine quality as that which was taken from the well and found to test 37 gravity, the day the sand was reached.

No evidence of water could be found in the oil which issued from the pipe, it is said, and it is practically certain that the well is in the same good condition it was in the day the sand was touched.

A member of the Carter-Nance-Laselle syndicate said to a representative of the News today that the thousand barrel storage tank and additional casing are expected to arrive on every train, and in all probability the well will be drilled in by the latter part of next week.

Other storage tanks will be ordered, in all probability, to help take care of the oil which comes from the well, until a pipe line can be laid to the nearest trunk line.

Oil men continue to arrive on every train and scarcely an hour goes by, day or night, which does not bring an auto load of oil men, who have been attracted to this city by reports from Oklahoma's latest oil sensation.

Ada is experiencing the most exciting time it has been her lot to pass through in the 20 years of her history. The most staid citizens have caught the contagion imported by the pessimistic oil men.

Some of them look quite awkward in their new role but they are catching the step and will without a doubt make good. Leases are changing hands at phenomenal prices and many farmers living in the rough country northwest of the city, have received more money for leases on their land than they ever saw before or dreamed of owning.

SCHOOL FOR NEGRO BOYS IS WELL USED

Opened in May of Last Year School Has Grown Rapidly.

(By the Associated Press)
McALESTER, April 15.—One hundred and fifty delinquent negro boys have been committed to the State Training school for negro boys at McAlester since it was created in May, 1916, and cared for at an average daily cost of 52 cents per capita, according to a report issued by the superintendent of the institution today. Of this number 58 have been released on parole.

The school is housed in a 3-story brick structure on the state penitentiary grounds. The two upper floors are used by the school and the lower, which is unfinished, as a granary and a storage house for farm equipment by the penitentiary. There are two dormitories containing 80 beds with adequate lavatory and toilet accommodations. A 10-bed hospital ward is also sustained at the school.

The inmates attend school three days each week, the school work consisting of the first 8 grades, with one period each day for manual training. The boys are divided equally into two divisions, one division working on the state farm where all foodstuffs are planted, cultivated and gathered by the boys, while the other attends classes.

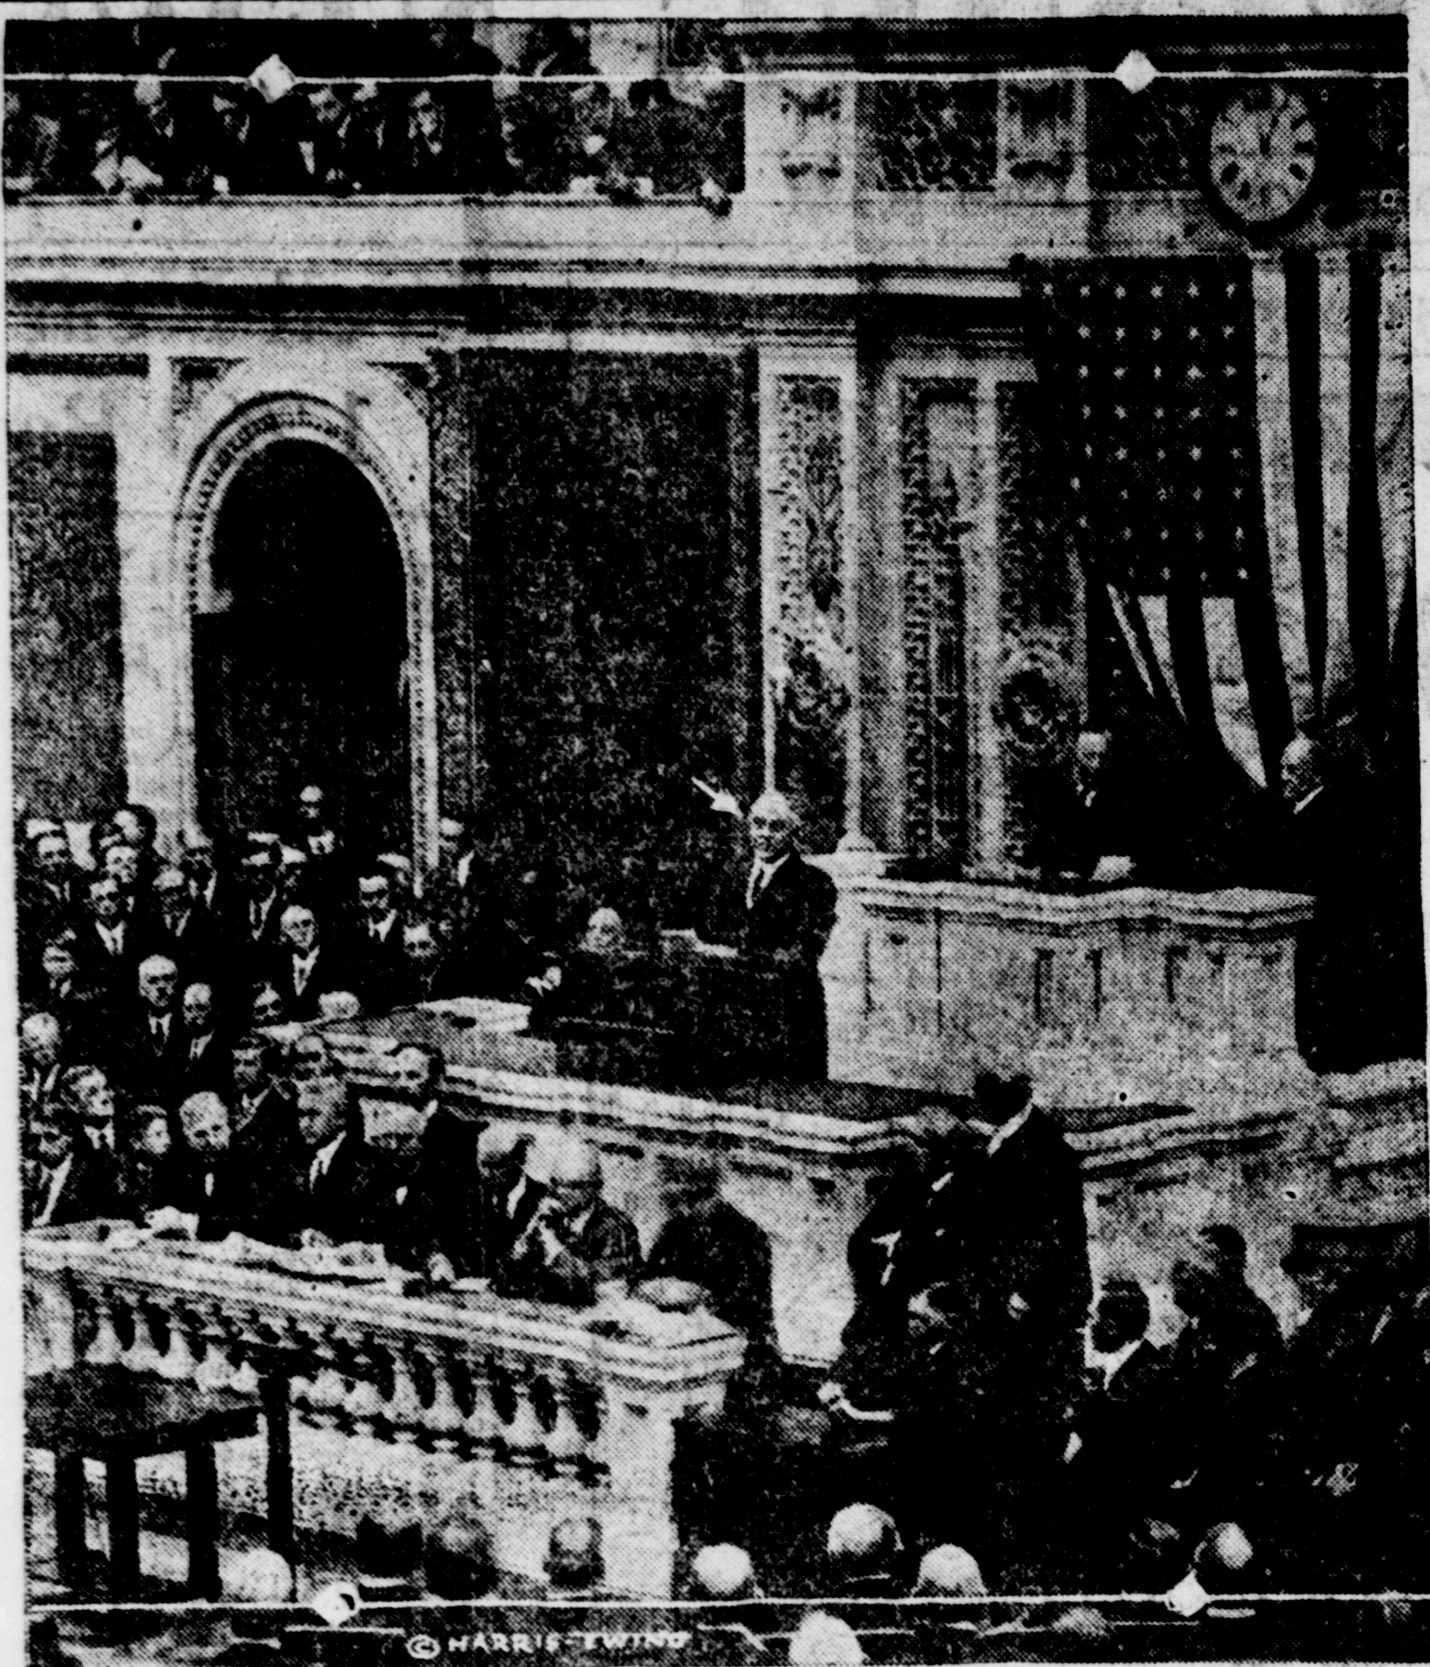

This work in the fields, the report says, has considerable educational value, most of the boys becoming first-rate truck gardeners. In addition to the class room work and the work in the fields, the boys are taught to cook, sew and bake, all cooking and sewing being done by them. Nearly all of the clothes worn by the inmates are made at the schools, according to the superintendent.

At entrance each boy is subjected to a thorough physical examination by the school physician, the examination being based on the regulations prescribed by the army in examining enlisted men. A complete record of these examinations is on file for future reference. A daily inspection is made of the beds, clothing and persons of the inmates. Illness of a serious nature has been at a minimum. Each boy is given a dental examination and a chart is made at the time of examination and preserved for future reference. During the winter season and on disagreeable days the boys are put through the setting-up exercises as following in the army.

Religious services play their part in the curriculum of the inmates, services being held each Sunday. Sunday school and bible lessons are held in the morning and a prayer service at night. A short chapel service is also held in the morning.

Each boy is given 100 merits each month on his attendance, and extra merits for extra good work, study or conduct, while demerits are given for poor work, lack of study and bad conduct. These are subtracted from the merits already earned. When 1,500 merits have been credited to an inmate he is entitled to recommendation to the judge of a juvenile court for parole, provided he has responsible parents or friends who are able to guarantee him proper home environment and provide for his maintenance.

and education. The same provision holds good if the boy is old enough to set out upon his own responsibility, it is explained.

Thirty-five of the boys are from Muskogee county, this being the largest number from any county. Oklahoma county is second with 20, Logan county third with 14, and Tulsa county fourth with 11.

LEAGUE TO OPEN SECOND SEASON

Has Same Members as Last Year; But New Officers.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 15.—With the same members that made up the league when it was launched a year ago but most of the clubs reorganized and the league directed by a new set of officers, the Western association will open its second championship season April 20.

Enid opens at Drumright; Chickasha at Henryetta; Okmulgee at Pawhuska, and Springfield at Fort Smith, Ark.

Anticipating a prosperous season, the league has adopted a 154-game schedule, claimed by its representatives to be an innovation for a Class "D" league. The season, however, has been divided into two sections, the first closing on July 2 and the second on September 18. If different teams should win the first and second sections, they will meet in a 7-game post season series to determine the championship.

Seven of the eight clubs are under new management, Charles Schmidt, the old Detroit American league catcher being the only hold-over. He was half owner of the Fort Smith franchise last season but has disposed of his interest and signed merely as manager. Out of the sixty-odd candidates Schmidt had reported to him at Fort Smith a month ago, he has selected what he believes a well-balanced club with good pitchers and consistent hitters.

Okmulgee and Enid clubs, winners of the two half seasons in 1920 have been completely reorganized. Barney Cleveland, former infielder of the Tulsa Western league champions, has been placed in charge of the Enid team, and as a nucleus has nine of the Okmulgee players of last year.

Business College Notes

JURY IS BATTLING HEAVY AVERAGE

Convicts Defendants With Regularity in County Court.

George Hilton of Maxwell was assessed $150 by a jury in county court yesterday afternoon. He was charged with wife abandonment, and it is said that Hilton is the first person ever convicted of this charge in Pontotoc county.

It is said that Hilton married a young girl of the Maxwell community in 1919 when he was only sixteen years old. He lived with his wife for about a year, leaving her some time ago. Later he was arrested on a charge of wife abandonment and it was upon this charge that he went to trial yesterday. The jury fined him $150 to be paid in monthly installments of $5 for the support of his baby, which is now about five months old.

Hess Jones was found guilty of transporting liquor by a jury of his peers yesterday. He was given an assessment of $100 and thirty days. Jones lives near Jesse and was arrested at Stonewall on the charge of transporting a quart of corn liquor. The jury decided that he was guilty as charged and found accordingly.

PROPOSED ROAD TO BE BUILT FROM TULSA TO TEXAS

(By the Associated Press.)

TULSA, April 15.—Interest in the proposal to construct 230 miles of track connecting Tulsa with Longview, Tex., was revived here this week when officials of the Santa Fe stated at a dinner held in their honor by the Tulsa Traffic association that the company intends to make this extension as soon as business conditions are "easier."

The route of the proposed road goes from Tulsa across the Arkansas river near Jenks, through Okmulgee and McAlester, Paris, Tex., and on to Plainview.

The Tulsa chamber of commerce is working on this proposal in the hope of getting the line constructed in the near future. The completion of this line would mean another main line of the Santa Fe for Oklahoma. The proposed route would shorten the distance from Gulf ports to Kansas City and Chicago by about 150 miles. It would pass through the rich coal fields and important oil fields of Oklahoma as well as the agricultural and timber producing parts of Texas.

The chamber of commerce is planning to take this matter up with cities and towns in the section of Oklahoma through which the route lies with a view to securing their co-operation in keeping the matter before the Santa Fe officials.

ST. JOSEPH TO START AS FULL FLEDGED LEAGUER

ST. JOSEPH, April 15.—St. Joseph started the 1921 baseball season Wednesday with its Western league entry recognized from top to bottom. Besides having a new owner and manager, the line up has been remodeled to such an extent that it is doubtful if the home fans will recognize the club when it makes its first appearance upon its return from training camp.

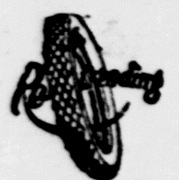

Since George K. Belden, president of the Minneapolis American association club, bought the St. Joseph team for a farm he has turned it upside down and gathered together an aggregation of players with which he will be able to stay out in front of the other pennant contenders.

Belden is depending on "Yip" Owens veteran Minneapolis catcher, who he placed at the head of the St. Joseph combination to make a success of his new venture.

The team which will start the season, according to observers who have witnessed pre-season exhibition games, will line-up about as follows:

George Figner, George Fisher and Joe Bonowitz, outfielders; Jack Beatty, first base; Wally Nuffer, second base; Ray McDonald, short stop; Tom Conolly, third base; Owens and Tex Crosby, catchers, and Bill Rose, Arnold Luschen, Mack Allison, Ed Hovlik, Nick Cullop and Wilkus, pitchers. Corridan.

Scanlin and Brundige are utility players.

Bufor from the South Dakota league, who will start at second, has been laid up with a sprained ankle but was expected to be in condition for the opening game at Tulsa.

George Figner gives every indication of being a valuable fielder. The scouts from the Chicago Cubs are said to have tried to obtain Figner last season, but Minneapolis already had him signed.

Jack Beatty at first base, managed the Kitchner club of the Michigan-Ontario league last year. McDonald at short is considered a find and Manager Joe Catillon of the Millers and President Belden debated a long time before it was decided to release him from the Millers.

George Fisher, slated for right field, is a pitcher as well. Joe Bonowitz, left fielder, is well known to St. Joseph fans.

OMAHA BASEBALL CLUB TO OPEN SEASON ON 13

(By the Associated Press.)

OMAHA, Neb., April 16.—Omaha's western league baseball club will open the 1921 season at Oklahoma City April 13, with what local fans consider a fairly well balanced but untried team. Quite a number of this season's players are new men.

The outfield consisting of All Platte, right field, a member of last year's team, William Lee, left field, also a 1920 veteran, and center-fielders Frank Griffin, formerly of the Memphis (Southern Association team) and Edward Hazen an Omaha semi-pro, is considered exceptionally strong. Both Griffin and Hazen are new men on this year's squad.

The infield consisting of Manager Jack Lelivelt, first base, "Whitney" Gislason, second base, Fred Haney, third base, all members of last year's team and Shortstops Clayton and Claire are both new men, the latter coming to the Omaha club after playing semi-professional ball at Detroit.

The team's catchers will be Cy Lingle, a veteran of last year's team, and Fred Stalpeton, a semi-pro player from the Pacific coast.

Followers of the game here declare the pitching staff is rated as fair, and both fans and management are of the opinion the Omaha team will make a strong bid for premier honors in 1921. The winning of quite a number of practice games at the Fort Smith, Ark., training camp, is pointed to as an indication of the team's strength.

Pitchers McGlone, Manske, a Nebraska semi-pro, Charles Nopp, Pat Ragan, and Harry Bumgardner, the latter coming from an eastern college team, will make up the staff of twirlers, for a time at least.

Kopp, Hagan and McGlone were with Omaha last year.

The Omaha teams will be under new ownership this season, the club having been purchased last winter from W. J. Rourke, of Omaha, by J. Burch of Houston, Tex., Mike Finn, formerly scout for the Detroit American League club is secretary.

Next Week is "Go to Movie Week" at The American Theatre THREE BIG SUPER-SPECIALS ALL IN ONE WEEK. LOOK THEM OVER.

Monday and Tuesday, April 18th and 19th "Earthbound"
Samuel Goldwyn & Rex Beach presents

Basil King's Famous Story of the Unseen World

Two men built their lives on this creed: "No God—No Sin—No Future Life!" It flung one headlong into the future he scoffed at. It put the other on trial for his life. Then the murdered man came back from his world of shadows. Back to his wife and the woman who had invited him to sin. Passion still held him to the scenes of his transgression. Even in death he could not escape. He was earthbound. How far away are the dead? Is the spirit held to earth by its desires? Is there growth and progression—even after the shadowy barrier has been crossed? Men and women, everywhere, stirred by intense personal feeling, have been asking—"Does the personality change with death? How long do the old interest go on?" Basil King brings an intimate knowledge of men and women, of their wants and needs, to this great narrative. "EARTHBOUND" deals with the emotional realities of men and women. It is a remarkable lifting of that veil which stands between this life and the next.

"WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?"

The threat of civil war because of the general strike in the British Islands has had a very distressing reaction here in the United States. One of the first symptoms of distress in this country was the abrupt break in the cotton market. The loss to American interests has already been extreme.

The quick response of American business to overseas depression reminds us again of the close connection of the two continents. A gain we are reminded of the interdependence of the nations. What hurts Great Britain inevitably hurts America, tho it hurts us in a less degree. What distresses the continent of Europe brings a large measure of discomfort to the United States. When the nations of the earth are busy and prosperous, their prosperity is reflected in American market reports and when the nations of the earth are idle and improvident American markets are stagnant. The business interests of the earth are so interwoven that all nations suffer when one suffers.

It was a recognition of the interdependence of the nations that lent force and logic to the appeal for the establishment of a league to preserve the peace of the world. The protagonists of that tremendous idea fully realized that the interests of all nations are so knit together that war in one country levies a heavy toll on all countries. It was not always so, but it is so today and is growing more so with the passing years. American granaries and warehouses may be bursting with unprecedented harvests but the products of our fields are valueless if the coffers of foreign nations are depleted by war. Yielding to the inexorable logic of this evident truth the world's idealists sought to establish a tribunal of sufficient sanction to preserve the peace of the world.

But the people of America chose rather to endure the evils incident to market instabilities rather than engage in an experiment altogether new and novel. They recognized the cost and loss of economic disturbance but they chose to pay the cost. Maybe they were right. Things have a way of working out for the best and the years will answer the riddle.

THE REPUBLICAN VIEW.

The following editorial from the Chickasha Star is a fair representation of the view of the legislature debacle taken by a number of representative Republican newspapers. The Chickasha Star is one of the leading Republican papers of Oklahoma and is edited by J. W. Kayser, who prior to the Chicago convention led the Lowden forces in Oklahoma.

"The blame for the deplorable condition of the state's finances is not wholly upon the republican House of Representatives. The truth is that neither branch of the legislature showed the proper spirit of compromise. The more blame rests with the republican house because its members took their doll rags and went home instead of staying at the capital and attempting to get the appropriation bills passed in the form in which they desired them. The departmental appropriation bill was not introduced in the house until on Wednesday before the session closed. This was inexcusable delay on the part of the appropriation committee of the house. After being in session ninety days the big appropriation bills were not presented until the closing hours of the session. If the republicans had passed the appropriation bills as they thought they should be in the first 45 days of the session and left their acceptance or rejection up to the senate, then they might have had a record to go before the people. Now a number of the state institutions are without money yet there is eight million dollars lying in the state treasury at Oklahoma City. Somebody is to blame. Somebody erred and erred most unwisely."

Congressman Madden of Chicago has introduced in congress a bill forbidding "Jim Crow" cars anywhere in the United States. Madden represents the negro district of Chicago—hence his bill. It was introduced for home consumption only.

Another thing that is very apparent today is that the Republican contingent dissolved the House before they had time to arrange an alibi. Mr. Matthews of McAlester says that the House had passed all the appropriation bills and that all the senate had to do was to act on what the House had already done. Mr. Salter of Cherokee says that the House adjourned to keep the appropriation bills from passing. Mr. Schwabe of Nowata, says that the House adjourned because it was impossible to keep the members there any longer on $2.00 a day. Such lack of teamwork is inexcusable. The boys ought to have centered on an alibi before leaving the capital city.

Speaker of House Sworn in as New Congress Convenes

Speaker Frederick Gillett being sworn in by ex-Speaker Joe Cannon at the opening of the special session of congress.

Elected by the largest majority ever given a speaker, Frederick Gillett was sworn in as speaker of the house when the Sixty-seventh congress opened. Uncle Joe Cannon, ex-speaker, administered the oath.

The Forum of the Press

Tulsa Tribune: Talk continues of dividing Texas into two states. Isn't one Texas enough?

Arkansas City Traveler: The human side of the telephone is the company trying to get the rate raised.

Pawhuska Capital: One pest everybody would like to see eliminated is the person who never seems to know you until he needs your help.

Tulsa Tribune: Over at Okmulgee the county attorney licked the lawyer for the defense for calling him a liar. Take their cases too seriously over there, it seems.

Bartlesville Enterprise: Before a young man marries a girl who wears a fur coat he should find out whether she has paid the final installment on it.

Tishomingo Capital Democrat: "Raise your own nuts," says a heading in John Field's Oklahoma Farmer. It will be remembered that John is a republican and nuts are easily cultivated in that party.

Sayre Standard: A law has been passed to inject nitrate of silver in the eyes of babies. Hadn't we better have one to provide for throwing sand into the eyes of the corner loafer—on windy days.

Shawnee News: The propaganda to cancel the debt of the allies to this country continues to grow stronger every day and emanates from the most unexpected places. It will not be at all surprising if Mr. Harding makes his first mistake in this direction.

Muskogee Times-Democrat: A barber of Milledgeville, Ga., is helping to restore normalcy by reducing the prices of haircuts and shaves. It is well that normalcy should start thus at the seat of authority—the barber chair. There all causes agitating the nation are settled by the barber himself whose opinion the citizen, lying helpless in the chair, smothered in suds and fascinated by the overhanging razor is bound to accept.

Children who have worms are pale sickly and peevish. A dose or two of White's Cream Vermifuge will clear them out and restore rosy cheeks and cheerful spirits. Price, 35c. Sold by Hensler & Story. (adv)

ONE NEIGHBOR TELLS ANOTHER

Points the Way to Comfort and Health. Other Women Please Read

Moundsville, W. Va.—"I had taken doctor's medicine for nearly two years because my periods were irregular, came every two weeks, and I would suffer with bearing-down pains. A lady told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how much good it had done her daughter, so I took it and now I am regular every month and have no pain at all. I recommend your medicine to everyone and you may publish my testimonial, hoping that the Vegetable Compound does some other girl the good it has done me."—Mrs. GEORGE TEGARDEN, 915 Third Street, Moundsville, W. Va.

How many young girls suffer as Mrs. Tegarden did and do not know where to turn for advice or help. They often are obliged to earn their living by toiling day in and day out no matter how hard the pain they have to bear. Every girl who suffers in this way should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if she does not get prompt relief write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts, about her health. Such letters are held in strict confidence.

er. Notable examples of this decorative lavishment are to be found in the Oriental living room, library and music room which comprises one portion of the residence in question. Another striking sample of the ultra-modern influence in interior decoration is in the dining room of the same dwelling. A boudoir of striking beauty completes this household.

At the American. No motion picture was ever produced with greater care and disregard for expense than the remarkable Goldwyn photodrama "Earthbound," which will be shown at the American theatre beginning Monday.

To say that T. Hayes Hunter, the director and his staff of assistants worked an entire year in producing this picture does not sound like an empty statement when one considers what went into the making of the picture. The records at the Culver City studios show that 150,000 feet of film were exposed in visualizing Basil King's great story for the screen.

A single photograph as taken by the motion picture camera is a little more than an inch long. Yet enough photographs were taken to make a strip more than thirty-seven miles long. Then came the exacting task of cutting and selecting until the finished product represented not more than 6,700 feet of film.

This was because Mr. Hunter was constantly striving to obtain the best acting, scenic effect and photography that was humanly possible. Every scene was photographed a number of times, many of them a dozen times and one as often as fifteen times.

But the care was necessary because double exposure is used so often in obtaining the striking effects in "Earthbound," and nothing in motion picture photography requires such exacting work as the double exposure. Edfrid A. Bingham, who wrote the continuity from Mr. King's story, used 370 scenes in telling the story, but during the production Mr. Hunter took more than 800 scenes.

The building and setting of the scenes which was done under the direction of Cedric Gibbons, head of the Goldwyn technical department, was another gigantic task. This involved the largest representation of a cathedral interior ever constructed on a motion picture stage. This great structure measured more than 240 feet from the door down the long isle to the rear wall. Another striking feature of the cathedral setting is an enormous crucifix almost thirteen feet high, done in bas-relief.

When one considers all these things and the fact that every one of those 800 scenes were first carefully rehearsed and discussed in conferences in which the author, the director and the continuity writer took part, it is not amazing that an entire year was required to produce "Earthbound."

Large Crowds Are in Attendance at Track and Literary Meet

The Pontotoc county track and field meet closed this afternoon after a two day session with a bigger, better and more interesting result in every event than has ever been witnessed at a county meet. Today was very bad for the athletic events and no good records were made, but the literary meet which was held last night was the best ever and an unusually large crowd was in attendance.

The preliminaries were held yesterday afternoon and all literary finals were held Friday night except penmanship and spelling, which were held this morning. The base ball tournament was also started yesterday afternoon with the Irving school of Ada and the Allen B team playing.

Owing to various conflicting circumstances the final results and winners of the meet will not be announced until Monday, at which time the News will print a full and official account of the entire meet.

Building Program For City Continues Steady During Week

No halt in the building program for this city has been noticed as more houses are now under construction than have been for several months. Residences of the finest bungalow and modern type are being constructed in all parts of the city and the steady growth of the residence district continues. The best way to tell this is by the building permits which are issued. During the week beginning April 11 and ending April 16, $14,600 worth of building permits were issued to go into seven different residences. This is ample proof of the steady continuance of the building as the past weeks reports are about the same as this week if as good.

—The Miracle of Oil

Oil is the magician of the centuries. It waves its wand above sterile hills and desert wastes and clothes them with the mantle of prosperity.

It opens up the forsaken places of the world and plants cities and factories and busy millions where silence had reigned and ruled from the beginning of time.

It speaks to the despairing hearts of a multitude of men broken down by the ruthless sweep of poverty and fills their lives with the golden promise of a better day.

It lifts the penniless labor from the slough of poverty and places him on the delectable mountain of affluence and ease.

Oil has changed the currents of civilization and created the most stirring stories of modern times. Oil is the magician of the centuries.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Theford's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says: "When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the faded liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

BOYS DISTRIBUTE MANY PHONE BOOKS

The spring edition of phone books for the city of Ada has been printed and were distributed in one day this week when the job was put in the hands of the Ada Boy Scouts, through the kindness of Mrs. Carrie Dunn the manager.

Each scout was assigned to a business or residence district with a supply of books and enough of the boys were on hand to do the work in a first class rapid manner. They wish to thank Mrs. Dunn for giving them this $21 worth of work to do.

ALLEN TROOPS ARE GROWING RAPIDLY

ALLEN, April 15.—(Special)—Reports received at scout headquarters here state that the scout movement at Allen is rapidly growing and two troops have been organized. The interest in the work has also grown as spring advanced further states the report.

The scoutmasters of this place, Messrs Perry Blice and George Adams state that 14 new recruits have been added to the ranks in the past few days.

The boys who went to Fitzhugh are very grateful to Mr. Coffman for the ice cream and other cats, which were disposed of at Lawrence.

Troop 1 is determined to win several prizes this summer, at least the last meeting said as much. Better watch this troop.

When the scouts advance past the stage of cleaning alleys and back yards, probably some notice will be taken of the greater things they do.

IRVING TROOP WILL GIVE PLAY

Weather Prevents Practice; Boys Are Working Hard.

Irving school troop are preparing to give a play Tuesday night, April 19. The title of the play will be "The Great Pumpkin Case" and the boys are working hard to make it a success. Owing to bad weather they have been somewhat handicapped in their practice.

The admission to the play will be free but a silver collection will be taken up. This is the first time they have tried a thing of this nature and they hope to make it a success as they have other undertakings.

CHANGES ARE MADE AT STREET PARK

The Twelfth street park is changing its appearance since the scouts took charge and the improvements are beginning to be noticeable. All troops have planted their cannas except two and one of them is about ready to do so.

Signs are to be placed over each section telling which belongs to the different troops. Prizes will be awarded Tuesday night May 31 to the troop keeping its section in the best condition. An urgent appeal is sent out to the boys to get busy as it is growing late and time is beginning to count.
